	Owning your home is a sign of success	I would consider myself a failure if I never owned a home in my lifetime	More homes should be built on designated Green Belt land if would help reduce house prices	I would be willing to have more affordable housing built in my local area, even if it affected the view from my window	I would be willing to have more affordable housing built in my local area, even if it meant building on local green spaces	Any landowners who leave buildings empty for more than 3 years should have the land automatically confiscated by the Government and turned into housing	The Government should have more powers to confiscate property from owners who leave it empty
