Other answers:

A good history book

A variety of books on arts, history & international politics and possibly a novel or two

As many thrillers and novels as I can get my hands on as an antidote to the rest of my life

Autobiographies

Intend to write one in August

Political biographies
Various biographies/autobiographies
Various books on local history
Various books on the Middle East
Various Pablo Neruda
Travel books
Lots of books about USA imperialism and geopolitics
Back copies of the Economist
What ever takes my fancy but it will average about 1.5 per week
