Table 1

Q.1 You may have seen stories in the media recently on the killing of Christians and Yazidis in Iraq and Syria by the so-called Islamic State. There are calls for these actions to be recognised as genocide, which is the systematic elimination of a group of people because of factors like their religion or ethnicity. Which one of these statements comes closest to your view on what the British Government should do about the killing of Christians and Yazidis in Iraq and Syria by the so-called Islamic State, and particularly the view that these acts should be classed as genocide?
