Table 12

Q3. As a current member of the EU, the UK is also a member of the Single Market, allowing for free trade, the free movement of people, as well as standardised regulation across Member States. All members also make financial contributions to the EU budget. Thinking about the Government's upcoming negotiations for a new relationship between the UK and the EU, for each of the following pairs of statements, which comes closest to your opinion?

Base: All respondents

The Government should prioritise maintaining access to the Single Market so Britain can have free trade with the EU vs.

The Government should prioritise ending freedom of movement so that immigration from the EU is reduced

Q3. As a current member of the EU, the UK is also a member of the Single Market, allowing for free trade, the free movement of people, as well as standardised regulation across Member States. All members also make financial contributions to the EU budget. Thinking about the Government's upcoming negotiations for a new relationship between the UK and the EU, for each of the following pairs of statements, which comes closest to your opinion?

Base: All respondents

The Government should continue to contribute financially to the EU Budget in exchange for greater access to the Single Market vs.
The Government should end financial contributions to the EU Budget even if this means reduced access to the Single Market
