

January 2016 MPs Parliamentary Panel Survey

Q1_SUM. The Department for Education is proposing to require OFSTED to carry out extremism checks on any establishment, whether a school or not, which provides instruction for under 19 year-olds for more than six hours in any week. Prohibited activities would include teaching which is deemed at odds with 'British values'. Under the proposal as it stands, this would include activities such as church youth groups, cookery classes, wildlife centres, sailing courses and possibly even Army Cadet Force training centres. Would you agree or disagree with each of these statements about the proposal? SUMMARY TABLE	1

Q1_6. The Department for Education is proposing to require OFSTED to carry out extremism checks on any establishment, whether a school or not, which provides instruction for under 19 year-olds for more than six hours in any week. Prohibited activities would include teaching which is deemed at odds with 'British values'. Under the proposal as it stands, this would include activities such as church youth groups, cookery classes, wildlife centres, sailing courses and possibly even Army Cadet Force training centres. Would you agree or disagree with each of these statements about the proposal?

The proposal appears to be a panic-driven response risking the freedom of law-abiding citizens

Would you agree or disagree with each of these statements about the proposal?

The proposal will enhance public safety by ensuring the Government can monitor what those under 19 years old are being taught
