Summary

Base: All respondents

	Statements
	Churches in my local area are active in helping people get through hard times	I would like to see churches and religious organisations help provide some of the services that local authorities can no longer afford	Churches should focus on helping people with spiritual matters rather than practical needs	It's more important for local churches to help with short-term emergency needs rather than long-term assistance	Churches should not be campaigning for political change
