	Statements
	Soldiers who served in Northern Ireland during the Troubles should be given immunity from criminal prosecution relating to allegations during the conflict	So-called 'Comfort Letters' guaranteeing immunity from prosecution for suspected former IRA members should be rescinded	I am concerned that Brexit increases the likelihood of the Troubles returning to NI	If the Brexit Party win most MEPs on 23rd May in the European Parliamentary Elections they should be given a seat at the Brexit negotiations in Brussels	Theresa May has done her best to lead her Party but needs to step aside to let someone else deliver on Brexit	The Brexit Party should stand at the next General Election to vote for MPs in Westminster whatever the result of Brexit	I would not vote for the Brexit Party in a General Election (respondents who intend to vote for Brexit party)	I intend to use my vote in the European Elections as a protest vote at the failure to deliver Brexit	If Parliament will not agree to the Withdrawal Agreement on the table, then Parliament has to accept No Deal as the consequence
