Q7. The United Kingdom formally left the European Union on 31 January 2020. There is now a transition period until the end of 2020 in which the UK and EU are negotiating additional trade and other arrangements. The current rules on trade, travel, and business for the UK and EU will continue to apply during the transition period, and no new trade deals can be implemented until its end. New rules will take effect on 1 January 2021. To what extent do you think the UK Government is handling these EU negotiations well or badly?	54
BASE: All respondents
Q8. As a result of the Coronavirus pandemic, there have been some suggestions that the transition period for the UK to leave the EU should be extended beyond 31 December 2020, into 2021 or 2022. However, others say that the transition period should remain as already agreed between the UK and the EU, and end 31 December 2020. Which of the following statement best represents your view on the length of the transition period?	56

Q7. The United Kingdom formally left the European Union on 31 January 2020. There is now a transition period until the end of 2020 in which the UK and EU are negotiating additional trade and other arrangements. The current rules on trade, travel, and business for the UK and EU will continue to apply during the transition period, and no new trade deals can be implemented until its end. New rules will take effect on 1 January 2021. To what extent do you think the UK Government is handling these EU negotiations well or badly?

Q8. As a result of the Coronavirus pandemic, there have been some suggestions that the transition period for the UK to leave the EU should be extended beyond 31 December 2020, into 2021 or 2022. However, others say that the transition period should remain as already agreed between the UK and the EU, and end 31 December 2020. Which of the following statement best represents your view on the length of the transition period?
