METHODOLOGY

Methodology: Savanta ComRes interviewed 2,052 British adults online from the 13th – 14th November 2019. Data were weighted to be demographically representative of all GB adults. All questions were also weighted by 2017 past vote recall and EU Referendum past vote. Voting Intention is also weighted by likelihood to vote. Savanta ComRes is a member of the British Polling Council and abides by its rules. Full tables at www.comresglobal.com

		Statements
		Allegations of antisemitism within the Labour Party make me think twice about voting Labour	The Labour Party is doing enough to tackle antisemitism within its own ranks	If Jeremy Corbyn becomes Prime Minister I would be concerned that Britain's allies could be less likely to share intelligence with the government	I am holding off making a final decision on who to vote for on December 12th because I want to see how party leaders perform in the televised debates	If no party gains an overall majority I would be content to have a minority or coalition government led by Jeremy Corbyn	If no party gains an overall majority I would be content to have a minority or coalition government led by Nicola Sturgeon and the SNP, with ...	Nigel Farage should withdraw Brexit Party candidates from Labour-held constituencies where the Conservatives stand a good chance of winning	I would be prepared to vote tactically, for a candidate or party I did not support, in order to prevent another party from winning in my constituency
