METHODOLOGY

ComRes interviewed 2,030 GB adults online between 22nd and 24th March 2019. Data were weighted to be demographically representative of all GB adults by age, gender, region and social grade. Voting intention questions were also weighted by past vote recall and likelihood to vote and all other questions also weighted by 2016 EU Referendum results. ComRes is a member of the British Polling Council and abides by its rules.

Q.2 Do you agree or disagree with each of the following statements?Summary*Base: All respondents

	Statements
	It is humiliating for the UK to have to ask the EU for permission to delay Brexit	Parliament seems determined not to implement the will of the electorate on Brexit	Remain-supporting MPs and other Establishment figures trying to stop Brexit have damaged the UK's negotiating position	If Brexit is thwarted by Remain-supporting MPs and other Establishment figures, it will be for the good of the country	If Brexit is thwarted by Remain-supporting MPs and other Establishment figures, it will harm the UK	Instead of delaying Brexit, Britain should just leave to trade on WTO rules on 29th March	Theresa May has handled the Brexit negotiations well	Theresa May's deal does not deliver the type of Brexit that those who voted leave in 2016 wanted

Q.3 Theresa May has asked Brussels to delay Brexit and next week MPs could vote on Theresa May's Brexit deal for a third time. Do you support or oppose each of the following scenarios?

SummaryBase: All respondents

	Scenarios
	If Theresa May's deal is voted down again, the UK should just leave the EU on the agreed exit date of March 29th	If Theresa May's deal is voted down again, MPs should not delay Brexit	If Theresa May's deal is voted down again, the UK should just remain in the EU	If Theresa May's deal is voted down again, she should not go back to the EU and ask for a delay	If Theresa May's deal is voted down again, she should resign and try to trigger a General Election	If Theresa May's deal is voted down again, she should resign and a new leader who would take the UK out with No Deal should replace her	If Theresa May's deal is voted down again, a new party who are tougher on Brexit should take over the negotiations with the EU	If Theresa May's deal is voted down again, there should not be another EU referendum as the British people made their decision in 2016 and that should be respected

	Statements
	If MPs in Parliament attempt to stop Brexit I will never vote again	Organisations like the BBC seem to be in favour of remaining in the EU and fail to give an impartial view on Brexit	Petitions calling for us to remain in the EU are irrelevant compared to the official result of the referendum in 2016	If Theresa May's deal is voted through by MPs a line will have been crossed and I will never vote again	If Brexit is delayed beyond March 29th a line will have been crossed and I will never vote again	If MPs vote to revoke Article 50 and go against the referendum result in 2016, it could damage the democratic process beyond repair
